IMPORTANT - Health Permits for Food Vendors:

Please remember: It is your duty as a food vendor to have read and understood all necessary requirements and regulations for Health Code acceptance by the County of San Diego Health Department. Failure to follow their specified guidelines may result in your booth being asked to shut down.

- The County of San Diego requires that you obtain a temporary food facility permit.
- Food vendors must provide a list of all foods to be sold, including whether foods are prepackaged or prepared on-site. To receive food permit information and application contact the County of San Diego at (858) 505-6900 or visit:

- The San Diego Fire Department requires that food vendors use appropriate safety measures and have correct and unexpired fire extinguishers on hand. We do not provide fire extinguishers to vendors. Please double-check to make sure you have the appropriate extinguishers necessary.

You are receiving all the needed information or reference to information. It is assumed you have read and understood all necessary rules and policies and agree to abide by them. You agree to set up within the allotted time. You agree to clean after your mess and NOT leave your trash behind. You agree to follow all county rules, regulations, and requirements, especially food vendors.

Last minute booth changes are not common, but in rare instances, they do happen.
